Four years at hard labor on the ounty roads was the sentence imposed yesterday upon Lem Davis, colored, after he was found guilty in the Henrieo County Circuit Court on a charge of feloniously shooting and seriously wounding W. K. Buckley, manager of Strawherry Hill Farm, several weeks ago. The negro said he shot in self-defense.

After the most sensational campaign in the history of Wilmington, between the Kirawherry Hill Farm, several weeks ago. The negro said he shot in self-defense.

The manager and the negro quarreled in the morning, and later in the day, when Buckley went to discharge Davis, the shooting occurred. Davis fired twice from a double-barrel shotgun. One volley of the birdshot tore away a piece of the manager's scalp and the other penetrated his lungs. Buckley fell in his tracks and the negro fled. The manager was rushed to a hospital, where he remained in a critical condition for several weeks. County authorities caught Davis a few hours after the shoeting.

When he was shot Buckley had started to enter the door of a room in which Davis was staying for the purpose of discharging him. The negro said he thought Buckley had come to attack him. The manager has practically recovered from his injuries.

Philip Booker, colored was found not guilty in the Henrico Circuti Court yesterday on a charge of attempting a crime against Jessic Ellis, a young negro girl. Little time was consumed with the trial, as few witnesses were introduced and little evidence was heard.

After the most sensational campaign in the history of Wilmington, between the history of Wilmington, and a new company desiring a franchise of certain streets for the purpose of certain streets for the purpose of the manager has brackley to a hospital streets for the purpose of the manager has practically received.

BUMPER CORN CROP WILL BE HARVESTED

Great Improvement in Tobacco, With Bright Prospects for Everything That Farmers Raise.

WASHINGTON, October 7.—Greater corn crop prospects by 78,000,000 bushels and great improvement in tobacco, increasing the prospects of that crop over the forecast in September by 92,000,000 pounds, were features of the Department of Agriculture's October crop report announced to-day.

An increase of 11,000,000 bushels in the potato crop, 21,000,000 bushels in the oats crop, and 10,000,000 bushels in the apple crop also were forecast.

Spring wheat showed a slight decrease, being 4,000,000 bushels under the September forecast, yet the combined crop of winter and spring wheat makes this year's harvest of that grain a record one.

The department's crop forecast follows:

lows:
Spring wheat, 217,000,000; all wheat, 892,000,000; corn, 2,676,000; oats, 1,137,-000; barley, 197,000,000; buckwheat, 17,000,000; white potatoes, 382,000,000; sweet potatoes, 55,000,000; tobacco 954,-000,000 ounds; flax, 17,000,000; rice, 24,-000,000; apples, 230,000,000.
Other details announced were:
Spring wheat—Indicated acre yield, 12.1 bushels.
Corn—Condition, 72.9 per cent; yield, 25.5.

White potatoes—Condition, yield, 103.3.

The forecast of the tobacco crop shows this year's harvest will be 954,-000,000 pounds, or equal to that of last season, despite early setbacks. The department interprets the yield from the condition at time of harvest to be: Virginia, 93,600,000 pounds; North Carolina, 136,500,000 pounds; North Carolina, 31,600,000 pounds; Florida, 3,900,000 pounds; Florida, 3,900,000 pounds, Kentucky, 344,100,000 pounds, and Tennessee, 59,100,000 pounds.

Condition: Virginia, 65; North Carolina, 74; South Carolina, 73; Tennessee, 83; Florida, 97; Kentucky, 86.
